1. After extracting the zip file, you will find all of the java files for the classes listed in the composite diagram.
2. The relevant jpg file and the composite diagram Asta file are posted to the GitHub repository's Files folder.
3. There are 27 java files in all.
4. The PTBSFacade.java is the main file that needs to be executed to initiate the program.
5. The Facade.java implements the façade design pattern, which connects with all the other classes and provides options for logging in and registering to proceed.
6. The Buyer and the Seller both have login choices
7. The UserInfoItems.java java file displays the items selected by the user and are added to the cart for storing them with the current user.